

Assembly and Command Ship, Sea Launch Commander, at Long Beach Port - © Sea Launch photo

The Assembly and Command Ship (ACS) is an all-new, specially designed vessel that serves as a floating rocket assembly factory while in port, which provides crew and customer accommodations, and also houses mission control facilities for launches at sea.