

NOTICE REGARDING THE TREATMENT OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Pursuant to Italian Act 196/03 "Protection of persons and other entities with regard to the treatment of personal information" and subsequent amendments thereto, we wish to inform you that:

1. The personal information requested when establishing and handling contractual relations with the Company serving this notice is collected to follow obligations in connection with the running of its business.
The personal information collected will exclusively be handled for purposes connected with management, statistics, sales, marketing and promotional activities, the protection, management and assignment of credit, the performance of obligations established by the law, regulations and European Union legislation, and in order to update the personal details of all individuals and corporate entities.
With these purposes in mind and in keeping with the restrictions and conditions imposed, personal information is handled using manual and computerised means and via data transmission with this sole purpose and, in any event, in such a way that the security and confidentiality of the information is guaranteed; the data will be registered, organised and stored in digitally and/or paper filing systems.
2. Should you fail to provide the data required, it may prove impossible for a purchase order to be processed or a business transaction to be completed. The supply of information is also necessary to comply with every tax formalities thus with every legal obligations in force.
3. Personal information may be passed on to outsiders involved with specific administrative tasks on behalf of our Company (for example, the management of information systems, market research, delivery of correspondence, certification of financial statements), to financial institutions for the sole purpose of handling payments in and out, to leasing and insurance companies, debt collection agencies and professional firms (lawyers or accountants) and to external bodies for the sole purpose of drawing up statistics or carrying out market research. Information may also be transferred without your express consent, to companies belonging to the Finmeccanica group, or to subsidiaries or associated companies (operating both in Italy and abroad), which may proceed with the handling of the data for the same purposes for which they were collected.
4. The party concerned (data subject) may exercise the rights conferred by Italian law n: 196/2003. You will find the full text of the statute in the following link:
<http://www.garanteprivacy.it/garante/document?ID=1219452>
5. The Data Controller is TELESPAZIO S.p.A., whose registered office is based in Rome, at Via Tiburtina, 965.