

Boosting Space industry

Through their complementary strengths Alcatel and Finmeccanica have created the European leader in satellite systems and services and actively shape the future of space industry.

A Leader in:

- Commercial telecommunication satellites and systems
- Institutional European satellites and systems
- Satellite navigation systems
- Meteorological and oceanographic satellites and systems
- Optical and radar observation satellites and systems
- Scientific satellites
- Defence communication and observation satellites and systems
- Orbital infrastructure and transportation

11 INDUSTRIAL SITES

A Leader in:

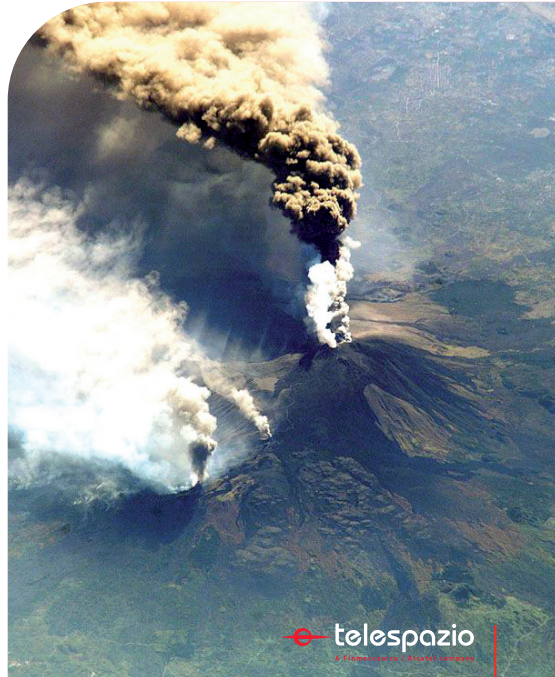

- Satellite broadband services: TV broadcasting, integrated networks and value added services (telemedicine, e-learning, security)
- Earth observation data and applications
- Navigation services
- Infomobility
- Satellite management and control services
- Ground segment design and management

9 INDUSTRIAL SITES

FINMECCANICA

A new vision of space

Telespazio

A new vision of space

With a forty-five years experience in satellite technology, Telespazio is a worldwide satellite service provider for corporate, institutions and Defense users: communications, Earth observation, navigation and infomobility, security, surveillance, radio and TV broadcasting, satellite operations, orbit control, ground segment and space control centers. Telespazio is directly present in 22 countries, among which Brazil, Argentina and French Guyana. Telespazio is currently involved in main national and international programs as Cosmo-SkyMed and Galileo.